JOHNSON ROSATI SCHULTZ JOPPICH PC

COMMITTED TO PROVIDING PREMIER LEGAL SERVICE FOR MUNICIPALITIES ACROSS MICHIGAN

For more than 20 years, Johnson Rosati Schultz & Joppich has served as the law firm of choice for governmental entities across Michigan. When municipalities face lawsuits or need legal counsel for their day-to-day operations, they turn to the firm for its deep expertise, experience and vigorous representation in all manner of governmental legal issues.

Based on its rich history of success, Johnson Rosati Schultz & Joppich built a sterling reputation in municipal law. This year, ten of its 23 attorneys were included on the Super Lawyers or Rising Stars lists, with founding shareholder Carol Rosati named to the Top 100 Michigan and Top 50 Women lists. U.S. News & World Report recognizes the firm as a 2013 "Best Law Firms" in municipal law and mediation.

Clients appreciate the firm's background in municipal insurance defense where it has represented governmental entities when they have been sued in every conceivable situation, from constitutional and police liability to land use and environmental liability. They also rely on Johnson Rosati Schultz & Joppich attorneys as municipal general counsel for their decades of experience in zoning and land use planning, police practices, employment matters and the myriad of issues faced by governmental entities every day. In addition, the firm has enjoyed significant success representing clients before the highest state and federal courts.

The lawyers of the firm are committed to giving clients highly focused and individualized attention, addressing their specific issues and finding solutions that mesh with their needs and expectations.

Several Johnson Rosati Schultz & Joppich attorneys have contributed articles in numerous journals, and have literally helped to write the books on municipal law, having contributed book chapters to the Institute of Continuing Legal Education's textbooks, Michigan Municipal Law and Michigan Zoning, Planning and Land Use. Many of the firm's attorneys also serve on municipal boards and commissions, sharing their time and knowledge with their own communities.
